All next week!

The Allisons Circus

11.30am & 1.30pm daily
Monday 12th to Friday 16th July

Juggling is a family tradition amongst the Allisons, they have delighted audiences and received many distinguished awards, both in Australia and overseas. Over the years the act has evolved and now features more skill and family fun than ever before, including juggling feats requiring incredible levels of technical skill and ability, plus some hilarious comedy routines. The diversity of this performance will appeal to all ages.
